City of Austin the New Capital of Texas in 1844.

Austin was a still small town with only a few hundred residents in 1844 when this illustration was made. The City had been chosen in 1839 by Mirabeau Lamar to be the Capital of the Republic, though the location was contested by Sam Houston who thought the area too remote and unprotected. Houston tried to force the capital to relocate in 1841 by ordering the archives be taken to Washington-on-the-Brazos, but Austinites fought back and retrieved the documents in what became known as the Archives War. When Congress reconvened in 1845 Austin was officially secured as the seat of government. (Austin History Center, Austin Public Library)

South Africa Tour-2014

A Special Presentation: Wednesday, January 7th, 2015 Walt and Franna Camenisch gave a very well prepared, fantastic presentation on their 2-week trip to South Africa last September, showing many awesome pictures on PowerPoint, etc. for over an hour. Everyone was apparently very inspired by the presentation. (Photo by Glenn Brunson)

Installation of New officers for 2015-2017

Larry Evans conducted the oath for new officers on January 7th, 2015 at the TAD-SC meeting.

President Earl Day welcomed everyone to our meeting, reported that 2015 had been a good year and hoped 2015 would be even better. Plans are in the works already for another field trip, the 9th annual May picnic and LVDSSM/TAD-SC 3rd Annual Fall Harvest Luncheon in September, 2015. Earl Day, Glenn Brunson and Susan Sein hope that our first new website is working in March, 2015.

VISITORS

Visitors: Ronald & Peggy Fee from Vancouver, BC; Macklin Youngs from Alberta, Canada; and Brian Brizendine from Frederick, Maryland were visitors at our TAD-SC meeting on January 7th, 2015.

Marie's Birthday Party

Marie Poss was honored on her 89th birthday with a party hosted by her daughters, Feri and Rona, and a number of grandchildren, on January 18th at the club room in her apartment building. Appetizers, sandwiches and cake were served. Everyone had a very good time but one small pre-school great-grandson was disappointed when the gifts were opened. He didn't understand why Great-Grandma did not receive any Legos. Marie was very pleased to see both family and old friends. We wish her a Happy Birthday!

GET TOGETHER TO CELEBRATE!

On Sunday, January 18th, 2015, the group in the photo above went to Sea Island Shrimp House in San Antonio for lunch and to celebrate the birthdays of Mario and Charm Montalvo. They were very pleased to see old friends. We wish the Montalvos Happy Birthday!

THE DEMOLITION OF FRAN'S HAMBURGERS

It was a sentimental meeting of old and new Austin for the final goodbye to a local staple: Fran's Hamburger. Under a cloudy sky, dozens of Austinites-young and old, slim and fat, man in suits and hippie types, even some babies and dogs-gathered Wednesday, January 22, 2015 at 1822 S. Congress Ave., home of the original Fran's Hamburgers for 40 years, to eat tacos, reminisce and watch the demolition of a building that defined Austin burgers for generations of patrons. (Austin American-Statesman)

Fran's Hamburgers closed last April 7th, 2013. (Editor's note: A new Torchy Tacos will be built to replace it.)
